

THE PRO-LIFE CASE AGAINST THE DEATH PENALTY

REAL PRO-LIFE VALUES

To be pro-life means to respect the dignity and inherent worth of every person.

We are all made in the image of God.

That includes people on death row, even those who have committed heinous crimes.

CONSISTENT ETHIC OF LIFE

As champions of life, it is contradictory to support a system that does the opposite - a system that ends life unnaturally.

To truly protect the sanctity of life, this value must be applied to the the totality of life.

INNOCENT LIFE HARMED

Some people on death row are innocent and some have been wrongfully executed.

Many victims' families are re-traumatized by the death penalty process.

Executions create more grieving families, perpetuating a cycle of violence and the loss of life.

AN UNALIENABLE RIGHT

The right to life is an unalienable right.

It is endowed by our Creator and was championed by our Founding Fathers.

The death penalty violates this right and tarnishes the values our nation was founded upon.
